New Service Keeps Readers Up-to-Date

GLENDALÉ, Ariz. – Glendale Public Library is offering a new service that lets readers stay up-to-date with the latest books, no matter what their interests are. BookLetters™ is a free e-mail newsletter that provides reading recommendations in various categories.

How would you like an effortless system that allows you to:

- Find out about a new author.
- Make a good selection for your book club.
- Research both adult and children's authors.
- Locate quality books for your children or family.
- Learn about new books on your preferred topics.

To receive regular updates on books in special areas of interest, just sign up for the BookLetters' e-mail newsletter service at www.glendaleaz.com/library and click on the BookLetters™ link. Reviews of recommended books will be delivered right to your inbox. Thousands of authors and millions of books will be at your fingertips. If you see a book you want, just reserve it with a click of the mouse. As soon as it is available, the book will be waiting for you at the library.

The service includes 21 different newsletters, including books in Spanish, business books, fiction bestsellers, romance, mystery, science fiction and fantasy, large print, children's chapter and picture books, teen books, nonfiction bestsellers, lifestyle (cooking, gardening, pets and more), science and nature, plus others.

Information can also be found on the book discussion groups held at Glendale Main Library, 5959 W. Brown St.; Foothills Branch Library, 19055 N. 57th Ave.; and Velma Teague Branch, 7010 N. 58th Ave. In addition, the BookLetters™ link includes access to an informational Author Directory, lists and descriptions of bestsellers and award-winning books, an electronic copy of the monthly review BookPages, and BookLetters Daily.

For more information about BookLetters™, contact Sue Komernicky at 623-930-3868. A Glendale Public Library card is not required to sign up for the BookLetters™ e-mails, but a card is required to check out books.

So many books, so little time – sign up today!
